1. About CWAS

Center for West African Studies (CWAS) is a University of Electronic Science and Technology of China (UESTC) based research center, established through the platform of the Ministry of Education of People's Republic of China and in partnership with University of Ghana (UG), University of Cape Coast (UCC), Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration (GIMPA), University of Education, Winneba (UEW), University of Development Studies (UDS), and UESTC Alumni in West Africa for West African Studies in April 2017.

The establishment of CWAS is in line with Chinese National Philosophy and Social Sciences “Going Global” Strategy with the need to improve the image of UESTC in West African countries; to enhance China’s influence in West Africa; to strengthen China-Africa collaborations, and to serve as a bridge for researchers and practitioners from China, West Africa and beyond to identify and meet the needs of West African development.

Missions and Goals

CWAS creates “1+1+1” new model of a Talents Training Base, a high level Academic & Cultural Exchange Platform and a featured top class “Think Tank” for West African studies.

Missions and Goals

(1) Provisional Regulations on CWAS Scholarship for UESTC Students

To encourage and attract more outstanding students from West African countries to come for degree study, University of Electronic Science & Technology of China sets up CWAS (Center for West African Studies) Scholarship for UESTC Students. The award is set up to reward new students with potential in future academic research. Applicants shall not win any other scholarship in the meantime. (Including UESTC scholarship, CSCI scholarship, etc.)

(2) Declaration of Full-time Personnel of CWAS for the First Half of 2019

The center has completed the declaration of two full-time scientific researchers and started the recruitment of scientific research backbones. The professor committee of the college started to interview the candidates from May 9th.
